

ABE RUEF TRIES TO JAIL PROSECUTOR

EXTRA! LANGDON ON STAND

Refuses to Answer and Will Be Cited for Contempt.

SAN FRANCISCO, OCT. 31.—ON THE GROUND THAT AN ATTEMPT WAS BEING MADE TO LEARN THE SECRETS OF THE PROSECUTION AGAINST THE ALLEGED GRAFTERS, DISTRICT ATTORNEY LANGDON TODAY REFUSED TO ANSWER CERTAIN QUESTIONS PUT TO HIM BY COUNSEL FOR ABRAHAM RUEF WHEN SUMMONED TO GIVE HIS DEPOSITION BEFORE NOTARY PUBLIC KNOX.

LANGDON WAS CALLED IN THE INJUNCTION SUIT BROUGHT BY LANGDON RESTRAINING RUEF FROM ACTING AS DISTRICT ATTORNEY, TO WHICH PLACE HE WAS APPOINTED WHEN THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OUSTED LANGDON LAST THURSDAY NIGHT. HENRY ACH, REPRESENTING RUEF, ENDEAVORED TO SHOW THAT LANGDON HAD NEVER SEEN THE COMPLAINT UNTIL AFTER IT WAS PRESENTED TO SUPERIOR JUDGE SEAWELL ON FRIDAY MORNING.

HIS QUESTIONS ALSO ATTEMPTED TO BRING OUT THAT THE COMPLAINT WAS PRESENTED TO THE JUDGE AND THE RESTRAINING ORDER ISSUED AS EARLY AS 5 A. M. FRIDAY, WHEREAS THE COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE WAS NOT OPENED UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK A. M. AND THE COMPLAINT WAS NOT FILED UNTIL THAT TIME.

WHEN ASKED IF HE WAS FAMILIAR WITH THE ISSUES OF THE COMPLAINT, WHICH SET FORTH THAT FELONY CHARGES WERE TO BE PRESENTED AGAINST RUEF, LANGDON REFUSED TO ANSWER, AND TOGETHER WITH HIS ATTORNEY, HIRAM JOHNSON, LEFT THE OFFICE OF NOTARY PUBLIC KNOX.

IT IS THE PURPOSE OF RUEF TO HAVE THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY CITED FOR CONTEMPT FOR REFUSING TO ANSWER THE QUESTIONS.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY LANGDON CLAIMS HE WAS JUSTIFIED IN HIS POSITION BECAUSE THERE WAS AN APPARENT EFFORT TO LEARN SOME OF THE EVIDENCE AGAINST RUEF NOW IN LANGDON'S POSSESSION.

JUROR DISMISSED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The inquiry into the eligibility of the men called to serve as Grand Jurors was continued today before Superior Judge Graham. Although the crowd in attendance was much less than on previous days a detail of about forty policemen was present to preserve order. Assistant District Attorney Henry Dealey, a saloon-keeper, on the ground that his name was not on the assessment roll.

S. M. Shortridge on behalf of Abraham Ruef attempted to show that Dealey had paid taxes on personal property, but Henry contended that this did not appear in the records of the Tax Collector's office, and that these records constituted the best evidence regarding the matter.

Extended arguments ensued during which it was asserted that the record wanted had been destroyed in the great fire. Judge Graham decided that Dealey, having made an effort to qualify as a grand juror in the early part of the year, was subject to the ruling made in the case of S. H. Daniels yesterday and therefore he was discharged from service.

WOMEN ON BONI'S LIST

Gay Count Exposed in Court by American Wife.

PARIS, Oct. 31.—The Castellane divorce case was heard this afternoon before M. Henry Ditté, president of the Tribunal of First Instance of the Seine. Neither the Count nor the Countess was present.

Maitre Cruppi, for the countess, pleaded for a divorce on the documentary evidence submitted. On an extended review counsel declared that the countess, at the beginning of the suit, was not acting under influence but solely for the purpose of ending forever the peril of the moral desolation of her household.

MARRIAGE CONTRACT.
He explained the marriage contract by which the regime of separation of property was established from the beginning and stated that domestic differences are over the question of money. Ill-treatment soon followed the Count even striking the plaintiff before the servants.

THE CO RESPONDENTS.
When he reached the question of infidelity charged against the Count, Maitre Cruppi did not mention names, or even initials, designating the co-respondents as "Madame A," "Madame B" and so on.

Maitre Cruppi asked that the Countess be given the custody of her three children.

PITIFUL STORY.
Counsel for the Countess spoke for an hour and a half and had not finished when the court took a recess. Counsel for the presentation of the case of the plaintiff constitutes a complete and pitiful story, a wreck of her married life due primarily to the Count's inordinate extravagance.

Even in spite of their domestic infidelity, the Countess was too good and scrupulous, he claims to begin an action for divorce until she possessed full proof.

HER PIN MONEY.
She was only twenty when she was married in 1885 and the happiness of the honeymoon was disturbed on their arrival in Paris by the Count's demands for money. The Countess income was then $700,000 and the Count allowed her $30 pin money.

The courtroom was crowded, among those present being many members of the American colony.

By 1899 the countess' interests, M. Cruppi said, were so heavily compromised by the count's extravagance that it necessitated a family meeting in New York and the appointment of a legal trustee. But the difficulties regarding money were unceasing and in order to obtain funds the count pawned or sold at ridiculous prices, the most costly objects. When the countess protested the count abused her in the presence of servants, and when she declined to attach her signature to documents he frequently pinched her and sometimes struck her, the first time being four months after their marriage.

GRAND JURY IS BEING KNOCKED TO PIECES

ARCHBISHOP MONTGOMERY.

SHE WOULD HELP THIS TILTED CARPENTER

ALAMEDA, Oct. 31.—It would seem that George Bittleson, whose marriage to his housekeeper, Miss Dora Pack, was halted Saturday night by his bride-to-be because he would not deed to her his property on Park avenue, is to be besieged by the fair sex, who benevolently offer their services to the aged carpenter, to act as his housekeeper. They evidently see through the "graff" of the "other woman" and wish to be kind to him only.

Through the first mail this morning came a proposal from an Oakland woman, Mrs. M. F. Norwood, residing at 578 Thirteenth street, to look carefully after Bittleson's interests as a housekeeper and a promise that she would not ask to be given a deed to his house.

Following is the letter from the Oakland woman:
"Mr. Bittleson, Dear Sir: Being a woman of public spirit, I want to say 'Praise the Lord' for one man whose head is not turned over by female grafters. I read of your trouble in the Oakland TRIBUNE, and I said outright, 'Praise the Lord, one man has sense enough to do the right thing at the right time.'"

"If you are ill or in need of an honest housekeeper for a little time, address me at once. You shall not suffer, and I do not want your property, your money, or your home. I believe in doing as we would be done by."

"If you are in need of a housekeeper, in return. Following is the letter from the Oakland woman:
"We have suffered disaster from fire and earthquake, but are suffering far more just now from the exhibition we are making of ourselves before the world, we are losing the respect of those who came to our aid so generously in the hour of our need. As matters now are I believe every well-meaning person in San Francisco feels that the only way to retain our self-respect and regain the respect of others is to push the investigation as rapidly as possible to a conclusion."
"It is most deplorable to see a community so full of public officers and officials so completely disgraced with wrongdoings as we are."

QUICK WORK THING OF PAST

Contest Settles Down to a Long Drawn
Out Affair

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—While public interest is doubtless no waning in the progress of the Grand Jury impeachment in Judge Graham's court, there is a marked falling off in the court room attendance and the policy adopted by the Sheriff's office and the police department keeps the corridors inside the building and the grand outside clear. Nobody is allowed to stand on the sidewalk within a block of the entrance of the County Courthouse. Perhaps those who flocked to the courtroom, crowding it to the point of suffocation, in the earlier stages of the Grand Jury impeachment, assumed that the examination of the grand jurors of doubtful status on the assessment roll as to their qualifications would be a dry bones affair, and kept away.

INCIDENTS IN COURT.
The session was, however, full of interesting incidents and some of it quite sensational in a way. The proof of his disqualification of Samuel Houston Daniels, assistant cashier of the Bank of California, whom the court has selected to be the foreman of the Grand Jury came so unexpectedly and suddenly that it took everybody by surprise. Then there were some interesting revelations made regarding the methods of conducting the business in the office of the Assessor and the Tax Collector, the extent of the ravages of the April conflagration among the official records of the municipality, and the expedients to which the Assessor and Tax Collector were forced to resort in order to make up the assessment roll of 1904-7.

OLD MAN IS HIT BY LOCAL TRAIN

While walking on the trestle crossing the estuary near Clinton station, John Paris, seventy-six years of age, a laborer, was struck by a local Southern Pacific train this morning and hurled into the waters of the estuary. The engineer quickly brought the train to a stop and the crew rushed to the assistance of the drowning man. They succeeded in pulling his unconscious form from the water and taking him to Thirtieth avenue where he was sent to the Receiving hospital. He recovered sufficiently to give his name and to state that he was coming in from San Jose. It is thought that several of his ribs are broken and that his old age will militate against his chances for recovery from exposure.

Paris says he did not hear the train coming until it was too late to get out of the way. Drs. Renie and Irwin announced after an examination of the man's injuries that he will die.

ARCHBISHOP MONTGOMERY'S VIEWS ON THE SITUATION

San Francisco Is Charged With Making an Ugly Confession of Its Civic Sins.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 31.—Archbishop Montgomery, who was present in the city yesterday, participating in the commemoration services of the beatification of the founders of the Sisters of Notre Dame of Namur. Being interviewed on the conditions in San Francisco growing out of the impeachment of the Grand Jury and asked for his views on them, he frankly said:
"I do not believe that we are worse than other large cities, and if San Jose and the outside world generally regard us as being very bad, I suppose we have ourselves to thank for it. We have been making a rather ugly confession of our civic sins lately. But the only thing worse than this confession is that we are open confession to goad for the soul, we must have good times ahead of us. The proposed investigation of our municipal affairs seems at the present moment to overtake every other interest."
"We have suffered disaster from fire and earthquake, but are suffering far more just now from the exhibition we are making of ourselves before the world, we are losing the respect of those who came to our aid so generously in the hour of our need. As matters now are I believe every well-meaning person in San Francisco feels that the only way to retain our self-respect and regain the respect of others is to push the investigation as rapidly as possible to a conclusion."
"It is most deplorable to see a community so full of public officers and officials so completely disgraced with wrongdoings as we are."

Draws a Packed House With Unlimited, Real Enthusiasm.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 31.—The Gillet meeting at the old pavilion last night drew a packed house and the enthusiasm has not been equaled during the campaign. For three minutes the big crowd stood and cheered the Republican gubernatorial nominee. A big street parade, bonfires, red fire, every band in the city and a circus band wagon and band, drawn by twenty Shetland ponies, were features.

Gillet spoke in part as follows: "Mr. Bell has devoted a great deal of his time and attention to abusing the Santa Cruz convention. That convention was made up of 825 representative Republicans of this State, including merchants, manufacturers, physicians, lawyers, farmers, orchardists, laborers and men from every rank of life. The men of the Santa Cruz convention on the first ballot that was cast I received two-thirds of the votes.

REPRESENTATIVE MEN.

"In that convention were delegations controlled by former Senator Thomas R. Bard, by Mr. Bulla and by General Otis, by Dr. Rowell of Fresno and by a number of others, whose names I cannot mention, whose name I stand before the people of this State for all that is anti-railroad, and these delegations worked and voted for my nomination. If you believe that Senator Bard, Dr. Rowell, General Otis and the Bulla family are the men who did for the nomination of a man whom railroad interests could control, then you either have no faith in human nature, in which event you are not the very best type of citizens, or you do not know the history of politics in the State, and you are not the very best type of citizens. I have fought the Southern Pacific."

"But even were this lost sight of, the fact remains that there were 825 representative men in that convention many of them among the most prominent of our State, and I am frank to say that if the Democratic party in California today could add to its ranks those 825 men it would have more intelligence, more ability, more sound its party than it has had since the days of Andrew Jackson. Prior to addressing that convention I did not ask a single San Francisco citizen or voter of delegate to vote for me. If you will look back in the files of the San Francisco Chronicle and Call for the papers of two or three days before the convention met you will find the fact there recorded that I was absolutely ignoring San Francisco. The papers out to accuse me of not giving the strength of the city the attention they thought it deserved. I didn't need San Francisco's aid and I didn't seek it and I didn't want it.

RUEF COULDN'T HELP IT

Mr. Ruef went into the convention pledged to the support of Mr. Fawcett, and he was not to be deterred. He prevented my nomination that I had all the votes necessary, he simply climbed into the hand wagon. I didn't need San Francisco's votes, for when the first vote was taken the house split. I had more than thirty-seven more than enough to insure my nomination. Kowling Mr. Ruef as you do, by reputation at least, I think we will admit that if Mr. Ruef's strength had been needed and he had been ready to use it, he would have given for nothing. Yet you will examine the State ticket of the Republican party you will find that there is not a single Ruef man's name on it, and I will go farther than that, I will tell you that if you and I, as you, as I have said freely and frankly throughout the campaign, that I have made no promises to any man or to any corporation, and that I am pledged to nothing except what I have said in the record of my State. There are no strings on me, and if any individual or any corporation in this State thinks that they have any strings on me or any control over me they will find out.

George A. Knight was not in good voice and did not speak long. He touched upon national and State affairs.

DELTON, MI, Oct. 21.—Secretary Bohnapart spoke here today at a meeting in the interest of William F. Jackson, the Republican nominee for Congress in the First District of Maryland. Mr. Bohnapart said:

Food for Thought and how to in- vest your money.

When you purchase a Knabe, Mason & Hamlin, Packard, Hardman, Conover, Ludwig, Price & People or Harrington Piano you have something which is known by the public as a strictly standard piano, and should you ever wish to dispose of it you can always realize at least 80 per cent of its original cost to you. We now have a complete line of the foregoing pianos in stock, including the celebrated Knabe Angeles, the Autotone Piano and the Kingsbury Inner Player. The latter three are combination pianos. We also have a complete line of Knabe Grand Pianos and if you are interested in the purchase of this style piano we would very much appreciate a call from you, as we are positive we can please you. GRAND JURY IS KNOCKED TO PIECES

E. R. Rock and Sam H. Daniels from the Grand Jury panel leaves as many vacancies to be filled. That is not all, however. It looks as if others of the sixteen grand jurors still in the box will have to be excused also for the same disqualification that unseated Daniels, Towne and Rock, namely, non-appearance as tax payers on the assessment roll. George L. Dealey, Ex-Supervisor James E. Britt, J. F. Twigg and Joseph Magnin occupy very doubtful positions. Most of these are business men of substantial standing in the community, but it is a surprise to everyone who has taken an interest in the examination as to their qualifications as grand jurors how shadowy their standing as taxpayers is on their own showing.

PROBABLE EFFECT.

The probable effect of the vacancies created will be to postpone the organization of the Grand Jury until after the election. There remain only five names in the Grand Jury box from which substitutes may be drawn to fill the places of those excused from service. Should these be disqualified for cause also, the judges would have to send in a new list of names from which a drawing shall be made to fill the panel.

It was undoubtedly the purpose of Langdon, Heney, Spreckels and Graham to rush the impeachment through, organize the Grand Jury, submit presentations of those accused of indictable offenses and procure indictments against Ruef in particular before the day of election for political effect. Their eagerness to rush things was in fact for a time unseemly. It was apparently the purpose of the District Attorney and his assistant to facilitate their program when it was dramatically announced by Heney that the name of Abraham Ruef was the first which would be presented to the Grand Jury and accompanied with evidence which would speedily result in the finding of an indictment.

DELAYED GAME.

Heney overreached the mark for instead of hastening the Grand Jury inquisition the announcement of his program has delayed it and election day will doubtless come and go with the formation of the Grand Jury still incomplete.

Yesterday afternoon's session was devoted to the inspection of the assessment roll for the names of the grand jurors who had been unable to give positive proof that they are enrolled taxpayers and the examination of the grand jurors themselves. All of the personal property assessment books and the indexes of the real property assessment roll were brought into court by the Tax Collector's deputies. Deputy Tax Collector Foley explained the process by which the rolls reached the custody of the Tax Collector and in doing so revealed the fact that changes were daily made in the names and descriptions of property in the rolls after they had passed out of the hands of the Assessor.

Has any such change been made in the last twenty-four hours? Shortridge asked.

Yes by one of the Assessor's deputies, Foley answered.

'Who was it assumed to do this thing?' demanded Shortridge in a terse voice.

Foley then stated that the name of Samuel Houston Daniels was not on the roll Tuesday but it was then as it had been added to the roll in the morning. Foley did not know the name of the Assessor's deputy who made the alteration but Shortridge said it was Winters.

Heney at once called Dodge, who was in the courtroom, to the stand, and he testified as follows:

'Mr. Winters informed me when I came to the office this noon that Mr. Daniels had been in bringing with him a deed which showed that property which had been entered in the name of his sister was really owned jointly by him and his sister. Winters said that he had then put the name of S. H. Daniels on the roll. He asked me if he had done right and said that at the time he did not know that Daniels was one of the Grand Jury. It has been the custom in my office to make changes in names and descriptions after the roll has gone to the Tax Collector, but not to change values. Had I known that Daniels was on the Grand Jury

Guaranteed Liquor Cure

We would not under any circumstances endorse a remedy for the cure of the drink habit until we had absolutely satisfied ourselves that it did all it claimed. It is the only cure for the drink habit that we know of and the only one that we ever knew of that had enough merit to be sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. It has stood the test of years of use and we know of many whom it has cured of the drink habit.

The guarantee given with each package thoroughly protects the buyer. Or, if you wish, you may return the package and we will refund the money. No 1 for secret use and No 2 for those who wish to be cured of the drink habit.

SNEAK THIEF IN HEART OF CITY

Operates Successfully in Down-Town Offices and Rooms

After an absence of about a month a sneak thief has made his appearance in this city and is operating successfully among the lodging houses and offices in the heart of the city. Mrs. J. P. Young of 1010 1/2 Washington street reports that her room was entered by a thief who opened the door with a key. The burglar carried off a black velvet dress, a ring and an imitation diamond ring.

Mr. Zerkow, who has a room in a lodging house at Sixth and Broadway, reported to the authorities that his room was entered by a thief who stole from his room yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock. Zerkow said that his roommate, a man named Frank, had been in the room at the time of the theft.

Frank, who lives at 150 Castro street, asked the police to find a paper hanger's straight edge which was stolen from him on October 28.

AFRO-AMERICAN COUNCIL MEETS.

The Afro-American Council of Alameda county held a very large and enthusiastic meeting at the headquarters corner of Eighth and Broadway last Monday night. President Wilson was in the chair and J. F. Summers acted as secretary.

The executive committee of the council met and a report showing the preparation that has been made for the great mass meeting to be held by the Afro-American Council of Alameda county at the hall corner of Wood and Goss streets, West Oakland, on Thursday, November 1, 1931, in the interest of the Republican State and County ticket.

They also reported that G. W. Whittey, State lecturer of the State council, who has made a successful campaign tour from San Diego through the entire State in the interest of the Republican State ticket, will be in the principal speakers at the meeting.

President Wilson informed the council that Mr. Whittey is sent out by the Republican State central committee to stump the State in the interest of Hon. J. N. Gillett and Hon. Warren Hearnes, the Republican nominees for governor and lieutenant governor and the entire Republican State ticket.

I would not have permitted it, not without advising the court. It would have been a delicate matter."

Daniels was then sworn and quizzed about the manner in which he was placed upon the assessment roll.

ON THE ROLL.

He said that a piece of realty had been jointly owned by himself and sister Josephine F. Daniels, for several years but he found it was assessed to his sister only, and he took down the deed to the Assessor's office in order to get the joint ownership of the property recognized on the assessment roll. He produced tax receipts for past years but Shortridge objected to their admission as evidence as they were made out in the name of Josephine F. Daniels only.

Heney questioned Daniels, who said: "I talked with no one about going to the Tax Collector's office this morning. I thought that as I owned a piece of property I should have it assessed to me."

Did you have any talk with Jerry Burk after you left here yesterday? Heney inquired, and Daniels answered to the negative.

Shortridge interrupted with an objection on the ground that that line of questioning was not competent to prove ownership.

We are not trying to prove ownership, answered Heney. "We are trying to prove that he was not assessed and not qualified before today."

Did you have your name put on the roll so as to become a member of this Grand Jury? Judge Graham asked.

I did so, not to get on the jury, but so as to qualify, Daniels responded.

"I think that both sides should consent to the withdrawal of any juror who has shown that he wants to get on this Grand Jury," said Judge Graham.

There was a pause, and then the Judge said:

"The court of its own motion will exclude Mr. Daniels. You are excused, Mr. Daniels."

BRITT'S STAND.

James E. Britt was questioned as to his residence and his qualifications as an enrolled taxpayer. He said he has for some time past been temporarily residing at San Francisco, but that he and his family have their permanent home in this city at 615 Fillmore street, a flat owned by his son, the professional pugilist, from where he is registered as a voter. The juror admitted that he did not own any real estate, but assumed that he was a qualified taxpayer as president of the Master Plumbers' Association, an incorporation which owned property for which it was assessed and on which it paid taxes. His case was temporarily passed.

Heney put George L. Dealey, a former real estate broker now a saloon-keeper, through a rigid examination as to his property. Dealey claimed to have paid taxes shortly after his name as a prospective grand juror was selected by Judge Kerrigan last January, but he did not have the receipt, did not know the amount of the tax he paid and claimed to own the furniture contained in the flat he occupied and that the tax paid was on this personal property.

When Shortridge put some questions to Dealey which Heney regarded as leading Heney said: "Don't lead him, Mr. Shortridge. He is an intelligent and very willing witness."

"He is not a willing witness but an honorable gentleman," Shortridge responded.

Heney challenged Dealey.

MAGNIN'S STAND.

Joseph Magnin was the next juror to be challenged by Heney. Magnin had arisen to address the court and asked that he be excused for a few days on business reasons.

"We challenge Mr. Magnin," said Heney.

"We deny the challenge," replied Shortridge. "and of course we want more evidence."

"Mr. Magnin will have to return," said the Judge.

"I don't want to stay around here and hear a lot of nonsense. It is all politics," petulantly retorted the unwilling grand juror.

"I hope you are referring to Mr. Heney," declared Shortridge with a wide sweep of his eloquent right, which was intended to include the famous prosecutor.

"I am not a politician," was Magnin's reply, and he further expressed his feelings to the court.

It is known that Magnin was one of Ruef's partners in the project of the Keystone apartments.

John F. Twigg was examined as to the nature of the firm of Twigg & Son, the boatbuilders which, he claims is a partnership and not a corporation, but no decision was reached.

Deputy Foreman was questioned as to the names of the firm of Twigg & Son, the boatbuilders which, he claims is a partnership and not a corporation, but no decision was reached.

The Judge then adjourned the court until today at 2 o'clock having first instructed the five remaining jurors to attend at the bridge at 1 o'clock.

RECORDS LOST IN THE APRIL FIRE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—It was shown at the examination in Judge Graham's court of the qualifications of prospective grand jurors, is demonstrated in the assessment rolls, at yesterday afternoon's session, that many records affecting taxable property were destroyed and that the rolls for the current fiscal year are very incomplete. Deputy Assessor Corbett said the present rolls had been made up from the assessment rolls of 1926-27 which had survived the fire. Sixteen volumes, comprising the assessment of all secured personal property, were saved. All of the rolls of unsecured personal property had been reduced to ashes. Then, again, only part of the stubs and carbon duplicate sheets of the tax receipts, which were bound and stored in the basement of the city hall, were saved. These were used conjunctly with the secured personal property assessment rolls for 1926-27 which were saved, as the basis on which the personal property assessment roll of 1926-27 was compiled.

MAYOR AND SUPERVISORS TO RESPECT INJUNCTION

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 21.—According to a statement made by Acting Mayor Gallagher, he does not consider that the Board of Supervisors will take any action toward removing Langdon from office until the injunction suit against Ruef has been permanently settled. He does not believe that he will take any part in carrying the matter to the Supreme Court in case the injunction is not granted.

present," said the Acting Mayor. "I would not look well for them to interfere with the action of the courts. When asked if he would take a hand in bringing the matter before the Supreme Court in case the injunction is upheld he replied:

"I have suspended Mr. Langdon and appointed Mr. Ruef to take his place. If Mr. Ruef wants to quit and let Mr. Langdon have the office it is no fault of mine. He can fight his own battles."

However, while he had no intention at the present time of taking a head in bringing the case before the Supreme Court, he could not say what he might conclude to do at a later time.

Dr. Florence Gwyer to be Accused of manslaughter Since Girl's Death.

A charge of manslaughter is to be placed against Dr. Florence Gwyer of 26 Chestnut street, who is accused of malpractice, which resulted last night in the death of 18-year-old Florence Wilson, sometimes known as Lulu Wilson, who passed away at 10:20 o'clock in the Central Hospital, where she had been since being operated upon by Dr. Gwyer.

Dr. Gwyer had been incarcerated in the city prison awaiting the result of Miss Wilson's sickness. John Stewart, a bartender, who is alleged to be responsible for the young girl's condition, is still in jail, and it is not known whether a charge will be placed against him or not.

The unfortunate girl died last night after fighting death for several days. Her remains are now at the Morgue, where an inquest will be held.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The Jewelry Workers' Union, which has been waging a four week fight for an eight-hour day, voted yesterday to call the contest off. The 408 skilled jewelry artisans will return to work today.

It is not certain that the manufacturers will re-employ all of the men who have struck. Several of the large shops are said to have obtained forces of non-union workmen, including many women.

AMERICAN DISASTER AWAKENS LONDON.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—A London dispatch says the Atlantic City disaster has called attention to the condition of the numerous railway drawbridges in England, many of which are worked without exceptional precautions. The Great Eastern railway, however, employs at each drawbridge a pilot man who is practically answerable for the safety of the train. After fixing the bridge for an approaching train he must meet the train, which slows down and picks him up. Several of the large shops are said to have obtained forces of non-union workmen, including many women.

GIRL VICTOR IN TYPEWRITING CONTEST.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Rose L. Fritz of this city, who won the world's typewriting championship in Chicago last June, came out ahead in the contest at the National Business Men's show at Madison Square garden last night. She wrote 547 words from dictation in half an hour, making five errors.

EARTHQUAKE'S EFFECT ON CONREID OPERA CO.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The effects of the San Francisco earthquake on the Conreid Metropolitan Opera Company showed themselves at the annual meeting yesterday. It was decided by the directors that in consequence of the disaster the company had suffered a loss of $100,000. The company will have to raise $100,000 to meet its obligations.

More Pay for Postal Employees.

There should be a reclassification and in increase in the salaries of postal clerks and mail carriers. This was strongly recommended by the National Convention of Postmasters, which recently assembled in St. Louis. In this State particularly the salaries of subordinate postal employees are shamefully inadequate to the labors and responsibilities devolving upon them. Valuable and experienced men are leaving the service because of the hard work and insufficient compensation. Young men are ceasing to prepare themselves for civil examination because the service is no longer inviting and remunerative. Nearly all the large postoffices and railway mail routes are working short-handed by reason of the rapid increase in the volume of mail matter, and while salaries in every branch of industry have greatly advanced and the cost of living considerably enhanced, the scale of compensation in the postal department remains unchanged. The pay of minor postal employees should be increased all along the line and it is to be hoped that Congress will take some action at the coming short session that will permit of such increase. The government is abundantly able to pay its postal employees fair and living wages, and the service is now hampered by its failure to do so.

Senator Bard warmly endorses James N. Gillett, saying he personally knows the Republican nominee to be an able and independent man. Senator Chester Rowell of Fresno says the same thing, and so does Robert N. Bulla, anti-machine leader of Los Angeles. Senator Bard served with Gillett in Congress, and Dr. Rowell and Mr. Bulla served with him in the State Senate. Those gentlemen speak from personal knowledge and experience. Their testimony cannot be impeached by Mr. Bell's dingdong.

Recorder A. K. Grim is going to get the biggest vote of any man on any ticket. He is the joint nominee of the Republican, Democratic and Union Labor parties, and has a record of honorable and faithful service in office that challenges comparison. The voters know Mr. Grim, and knowing him, will vote for him with great pleasure.

Next Tuesday Alameda county is going to demonstrate that she is still a banner Republican county by giving Gillett the largest plurality ever given in this county to a gubernatorial candidate. Pardee's plurality of 4700 four years ago was the largest on record, but Alameda is going to beat that this year by at least a thousand.

Oh yes, the Democratic party is the friend of labor. Every time it gets into power the mills and factories shut down and labor is given a long, long rest. Somehow the rest is always bad for the workmen and bad for business.

Mr. Bell says he has delivered the same speech all over the State. That is what is what has given the voters such a tired feeling.

Next Tuesday Bell's dingdong will die away and Langdon's clock will strike "23."

The Republican county ticket is composed of first-class men. Vote it.

WHEELER'S OBJECTIONS TO SPELLING REFORM.

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I was surprised, if not sadly disappointed, when some weeks ago I read in your valuable paper the flimsy objections of Professor Wheeler to the proposed spelling reform in English literature, which is truly a long felt want, for the spelling of the English language is perfectly systemless. We learn to spell as a parrot learns to talk. As a rule, only the ignorant and superstitious object to almost all new inventions or improvements, but when men of rare learning join their ranks it becomes a matter of surprise and consternation.

The Carnegie reform of our spelling received the endorsement of President Roosevelt and most university faculties and heads of institutions of learning because they see the need of it. Every journalist is aware of the fact that all English-speaking nations are poor spellers. Here I speak from experience, having been in the newspaper field for thirty-five years. Many of the articles presented to the editor for publication, coming even from professional men, are perhaps faultless as far as syntax or autography is concerned, but when it comes to spelling then the proof reader gets busy and the editor smiles. The English language no doubt will ultimately become the world's language, but in order to succeed and make it easy for the new student to acquire our language, we must eventually adopt and adhere to the phonetic system as it is in Latin and in the German language, and neither the Holy Bible nor Shakespeare will suffer by the innovation, as Mr. Wheeler intimates. In Germany every school boy spells correctly without the aid of a dictionary. He merely listens to the pronunciation and then promptly spells the word with perfect confidence. Why should we employ a lot of silent, useless letter, calculated to embarrass the pupil and frequently the teacher too? Let us have a reformation in that direction, for its benefits to coming generations will be incalculable.

Yours truly,
CHAS. BESSERER.

Oakland, Cal., October 29, 1906.

GOOD TO BE CORRECTED.

1266 Franklin Street, Oakland, Oct. 22, 1906.

Editor TRIBUNE—In your issue of Sunday, 21st inst., appears a paragraph headed "She is Now Lady Paget." This is not correct.

The fact of the king conferring the degree of Knight Commander of the Victorian Order on any person does not carry with it a title for his wife, as it is merely a decoration for distinguished service.

There are no cases on record where King Edward has knighted or created a peer who has a wife of foreign nationality. As also an act of Parliament was passed some years ago refraining the reigning monarch from creating a peer of England exclusively, or conferring the peerage on any individual who has a wife of foreign nationality. All newly created peers are of the United Kingdom.

In the same issue under the heading of "American Women in England," appears a paragraph referring to Lady Randolph Churchill as having married as her second husband Lord Cornwallis-West. This is an error.

There is no Lord Cornwallis-West in the peerage of the United Kingdom.
Respectfully,
I. BROWN.

For Republicans to Consider.

The election in California this year has a side quite apart from the personality of the opposing candidates or questions relating purely to local administration. How would the news that California has gone Democratic be received in the east? Would it not convey the impression that the people of this State had repudiated the policy of the Roosevelt administration and expressed disapproval of the course of the President since his second inauguration?

To the nation at large the election of Mr. Bell would be merely a Democratic victory and a Republican defeat. At Washington it would be taken as an evidence that the people of California no longer place confidence in the Republican party. This is the inevitable aspect that Democratic success out here would wear to eastern people.

We take it that the great mass of Californians irrespective of party approve of the President's policy and desire to sustain and strengthen his hands. They cannot do this by defeating a candidate of the President's own party who, as a member of Congress, has stood loyally by the national administration during the last four years. The President's course cannot be approved by voting the President's party out of power. So pronounced an expression of distrust would necessarily take on the color of a rebuke to President Roosevelt, no matter how the voters here regarded the matter.

The Democratic hope of success is the scheme to seduce by cunning sophistries and demagogic appeals to popular prejudice a sufficient number of Republicans into voting for Bell. The whole Democratic campaign is an artful effort to play upon popular credulity. Political issues and party principles are entirely ignored by Bell and his flegmen. But the crux of their whole contention is that neither the Republican party of California nor its candidate for Governor is to be trusted. After election, should the Democrats win, it will be the Republican party that has been rebuked, not the railroad. The enemies of President Roosevelt would immediately say the President had been disciplined by the Californians.

Do the Republicans of this State desire to place the President in the position of having been rebuked? Do they deserve to be placed in the attitude of disapproving the national administration and repudiating the policies which have distinguished it? If they do not they should be sure to vote for James N. Gillett.

It begins to look as if the graft investigation in San Francisco will degenerate into a farce. The opposing attorneys are now engaged in trying the members of the grand jury panel, subjecting them to a quizzing course that has its humorous as well as unpleasant side. By the time the lawyers get through bedeviling the jury a motion to discharge it for being illegally and irregularly constituted may be made. If the jury should be dismissed after being submitted to a searching cross-examination it would be a farcical end to the graft crusade. The jury may be restrained by court orders from hearing evidence or finding indictments on the ground that it was not empanelled according to law. Stranger things have happened.

Candidate Bell is pleading that the "banquets" be cut out, so that he may have more time for needed rest and recuperation, and it is quite likely that Gillett feels the same yearning. Poor Langdon would probably be willing to take these banquets off their hands for the remainder of the campaign. He looks like a man who would really enjoy a feed of that sort if he could only get near enough to it.—Tulare Register.

The London Economist states that British capitalists draw an income of $500,000,000 from their foreign investments. Last fiscal year they paid income tax on $330,300,000, as compared with $195,100,000 twenty years ago. The largest amount is derived from interest on foreign and colonial government securities and the next largest sum from dividends and interest from foreign and colonial concerns.—Consular and Trade Reports.

A Proven Mine for the Price of a Prospect

On the South, adjoining the now famous GOLD BAR PROPERTY, whose shares were first issued at 17c and have since sold at $2.05 (now $1.27).

On the East, adjoins the GOLD KING GROUP, whose shares were first issued at 15c; since sold at 40c; now 34c.

On the North adjoins the CARNATION GROUP, whose shares were first issued at 25c; now 75c.

On the West, adjoins the GOLD BAR ANNEX GROUP, whose shares were first issued at 12c; now 32c.

Within 600 feet west of the HOMESTAKE (has the same vein), whose shares were first issued at 75c; now $1.27.

Within 1500 feet of the DAISY (has the same vein), whose shares were first issued at 15c; now 45c.

THE SUREST THING IN MINING:

That the Original Gold Bar Will Greatly Advance Over the Present Issue Price

Eight distinct veins have been discovered so far on this property, four running to the North and South and an equal number to the East and West.

The entire Gold Bar Mountain is heavily mineralized, and further development will undoubtedly prove the existence of veins other than those already mentioned. As these veins, without exception, extend into the adjoining properties, where they have been opened to a considerable depth, and there show big values, it is practically certain that the same values will be found on this ground as depth is gained; and the delay in opening this property has been due solely to the fact that the development of the adjoining properties would determine the value of this ground, as the veins are identically the same.

The veins extending in the Gold King Group on the East at a depth of 160 feet, shows shipping values of $200 per ton; while on the Homestake Group, 600 feet to the East, at the 300-foot level the vein is 160 feet wide and will ALL average better than $30 per ton.

Three of the veins running North and South enter into the Gold Bar Property. The main Gold Bar vein is the largest in the District, being 178 feet wide, with an average value of $12 per ton for the whole vein, while small parts show shipping value of $1,600 to the ton.

In our opinion a purchase of the Original Gold Bar stock at the issue price of 20c per share, is equivalent to Buying a Dollar for Fifty Cents; and we believe the stock will show a premium over the issue price of a Hundred Per Cent Within Sixty Days.

The value of the veins having been proven by the developments in the adjoining properties, which completely surrounded this group, takes this property out of the prospect class and at once makes it a Mine.

As such we commend it as the most desirable among the many good Bullfrog properties on the market today.

Reservations Should be made by telegraph, to insure consideration, and remittance in full, by bank draft or certified check, must be forwarded immediately after allotment is made.

BY TELEGRAPH—Since the above advertisement was written a sensational new strike has been made on the Gold Bar in the North shaft, ore running $3178 to the ton, the richest ever found in the Bullfrog district.

This strike is only two hundred feet from the original Gold Bar property which has the same vein.

SHOTS AIMED AT MISS OLSEN

Exhausting every method known to his clever tactics of cross-examination, Judge A. L. Frick, in the Superior Court this morning, attempted to demonstrate to the jury in the trial of Lester C. McNulty that his fat accuser, Miss Olivia Dorothy Olsen, was a blackmailer. He continually questioned her on the money phase of the case and developed in the witness a psychological problem that he found hard to solve.

Aeronaut Caught in Ropes Is Thousands of Feet in the Air.

Dr. Thomas, the New York aeronaut, is today thousands of feet in the air in a runaway balloon, without basket or ballast. Dr. Thomas in making an ascent in the air, was caught in a tangle of wires and while trying to disentangle his balloon basket he was caught in the dangling ropes and at 2,000 or 3,000 feet, he was seen by a crowd of people gathered on the ground. He was seen by a crowd of people gathered on the ground.

THE MERCHANTS AND TAXPAYERS OF ALAMEDA COUNTY ENDORSE ASSESSOR H. P. DALTON

The following leading business men and taxpayers of Alameda County have signed an endorsement of Henry P. Dalton's cause as County Assessor and urge his re-election upon the voters of Alameda County. The list is an imposing one:

TO THE VOTERS OF ALAMEDA COUNTY: DURING THE INCUMBENCY OF TWELVE YEARS, IN THE OFFICE OF COUNTY ASSESSOR, HENRY P. DALTON HAS PROVED HIMSELF TO BE CAPABLE, UPRIGHT AND FEARLESS OFFICIAL, AND HAS EQUALIZED THE BURDEN OF TAXATION ON A FAIR AND EQUITABLE BASIS OF MAKING JUST AND FAIR ASSESSMENTS OF PROPERTY WITHOUT REGARD TO PERSON OR LOCALITY, SHOWING FAVOR TO NONE AND UPHOLDING THE PRINCIPLE OF THE LAWS RELATING TO THE LEVYING OF TAXES HIS RETENTION IN THE OFFICE OF COUNTY ASSESSOR IS THEREFORE OF GREAT IMPORTANCE TO THE TAXPAYERS IN EVERY PART OF THE COUNTY. IN RECOGNITION OF HIS FAIRNESS AS ASSESSOR AND THE COMPETENT MANNER IN WHICH HE HAS MANAGED HIS OFFICE, THE UNDERSIGNED CITIZENS AND TAXPAYERS OF ALAMEDA COUNTY DECLARE THAT THE BEST INTERESTS OF ALAMEDA COUNTY CALL FOR THE RETENTION AND RE-ELECTION OF MR. DALTON, AND WE HEREBY PLEDGE HIM OUR SUPPORT AT THE COMING ELECTION
